LANSDOWNE CHILDREN’S CENTRE / ABOUT US / STRATEGIC PLAN

Strategic Plan

Lansdowne Children's Centre 2019–2023 Strategic Plan:

Advance equity, quality, access and safety of services

- Improve ease of services access for families
- Support the age continuum of children and youth with quality, evidence-informed services
- Advocate around appropriate operating and capital resources

Cultivate relationships

- Effectively engage and support diverse families, embracing their strengths as advisors, ambassadors, mentors and informed consumers
- Collaborate so integrated internal services are aligned with community and funding partners and communities of practice for greater capacity and collective impact in all environments
- Ensure an informed public, influencing commitment to support client needs and agency causes

Sustain agency capacity and infrastructure viability

- Strengthen ability to adapt via organizational culture, to optimize the working environment
- Access required resources by diversifying funding and responding to markets
- Strengthen alignment of Centre and Foundation governance to maximize support of future directions
- Ensure Information Technology capacity to sustain agility supporting clinical and business processes
